FRIDAY, FEB. 20, 1885

Weymouth Historical Society.

The February meeting of this society (which was adjourned from the previous Wednesday evening on account of the festival in the Union Church, at which several of the officers were engaged) was held in the Tufts Library Rooms, President Loud in the chair. The evening was very cold and blustering, and the attendance correspondingly small.

Samuel Bates, Esq., who had kindly consented to read his paper upon the illustrious church in Rimbault, was not able to be present in consequence of a town meeting of that town of which he is the clerk; and in its place the secretary read a sketch of General James L. Hines, which forms a portion of the "Historical Sketch of Weymouth," now about ready to issue from the press.

The committee on papers and the preparation of business announced that arrangements have been made or were in progress which will insure the presentation of something of interest for several subsequent meetings.

The following donations were reported:

From the New England Historic Genealogical Society: "Maverick's Description of New England," small pamphlet.

From John T. Hassan, Esq.: A duplicate of the same.

From Eliza Weston, Esq.: "Patriot Hall Railway Guide, Oct. 1852," one of the earliest editions.

From the Department of State, Washington, D. C.: "The United States Consular Report, Nos. 46 & 47, Oct. & Nov. 1881," Pamphlets.

From the Navy Department, Washington, D. C.: "Report of the Secretary, for 1883," 2 vols. octavo, bound.

From the War Department Washington, D. C.: "Army Register, 1885," 1 volume, "from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.: "Financial Report, 1881."

Company II Reunion.

Perhaps no class of men pose so highly as our early regiments as those who fought side by side on the field of battle and now share together the stirring reminiscences of our great civil war. Company II, of the 12th Massachusetts regiment assembled on Wednesday evening at Grand Army Hall, East Weymouth, in the same building where in '61 they espoused themselves in the Union cause, to celebrate according to custom their annual reunion. Twenty-four comrades with their ladies, were in the audience, and their honored commanding general, Thos. W. Hastings, was master of ceremonies. On these occasions the boys in old days, with their express boxes of the warmest friendship, call to mind the names of comrades who dropped in the ranks, and tell to each other the stories of camp and battlefield. If possible, the gathering of the company on Wednesday evening was more pleasant than any previous one, and the agreeable quarters added in the success of the different arrangements.

At eight o'clock the Company and guests repaired to the banquet hall, where a turkey supper was served by the ladies, and a hearty meal was enjoyed by the keenest relish. Afterwards an adjournment was had to the comfortable rooms of the Post, where all were free to make the most of the hour in animated conversation and sociability. At 9:30 o'clock Capt. Hastings rapped the company to order, and called upon Z. L. Bicknell, Esq., representing the Weymouth war board of Selectmen, for remarks, and that gentleman responded in an interesting manner. Hon. James Hampshire, No. 1 Weymouth, Esq., and Albert Hart, Esq., of the same board, had invited, but were unable to attend. Letters of regard were sent from John P. Lewis, Dr. Wm. W. Whistler, Esq., commandant Alfred C. Mumford of Brockton, Maj. E. Peet of Arlington, Capt. Moses Ahern and Col. S. L. Lovell, Capt. Hastings kept the interest alive by constant reminiscences of the company and its members, besides giving an excellent sketch of the battle of Gettysburg. Other remarks were made by H. A. Thomas, one of the invited guests, and comrade Joseph W. Thayer of Chelsea. An appropriate poem by a former comrade, J. Thomas, was read by the ladies. The Haynes Quartette of East Weymouth, The Haynes Quartette of East Weymouth was present, and enlivened the occasion by numerous selections, which were highly appreciated, and included Artillerist's Oath, The Winds are all hushed, Song for C. Will Bailey, Battle Prayer, Three Crosses, Where would I be, Soldiers Farewell.

One member, Albert Bates, had died during the year. Capt. Hastings, Capt. Garey and comrade Jones were appointed a committee to arrange for the next reunion. Mr. H. A. Thomas was unanimously elected an honorary member of the company. A most hearty endorsement of the meeting came from all, and all felt that the occasion had been specially successful and it had been good to be there.

In connection with this report it may be stated that Cyrus Wasburn, Esq., who had been invited to the reunion, was the choice of the company for its 1st Lieutenant when organized, but the physician pronounced his physical condition to be a far against military service. He kindly renounced the command with a donation of money, to aid in the success of the occasion.

Personal.

The Quincy Patriot caustically alludes to error in the statement concerning dogs in this town, which between hurried writing, composition and proof was somewhat mixed in its arithmetic and inaccurate language. As all newspapers are subject to these little slips and trials, the verdict ty in itself did nothing, if disposed, can often find opportunity to show a brickbat at some brother pressman.

To support this assertion we quote the Item published in a daily, giving an account of a "remarkable recovery" which states that a little girl in Georgia, named Edna Worley, was killed by a bullet, and then gravely continues to narrate that a part of the fractured skull bone and some of the brain was taken out by a physician, and when the doctor called to see her again she was up and about with other children, suffering no pain, and the Quincey Patriot had to add,

Mrs. Lorenzo White contemplates a trip to Washington, D. C.

Bargains may be had in boots and shoes during the bankrupt sale at E. H. Pray's, Washington square.

L. W. Nash has in stock a line of Dr. Warner's Paraline Corsets, at the price of 35c, per pair, and a lot of 100 pairs, at 25c. Store on Lincoln sq.

The chimney of the residence of Mr. James F. Wendall took fire on Tuesday evening, and considerate excitement ensued, as it was feared the house would be burned.

The Knights of Labor expect to hold a grand concert and dance at either the Town or Clapp's hall about the middle of next month. E. E. Chapman was referee.

The result of the polo game between the Quineys and East Weymouth last Friday evening was a surprise to a great many. This was the first league game the Quineys have won and it was done handsomely, their securing three straight goals in about one hour and ten minutes. E. E. Chapman was referee.

The East Weymouth polo team have recently been beaten three games in succession, three straight goals. The clubs played with are the Quineys, Plymouth, and King Phillips.

This evening the Samuels of South Abington are to play the East Weymouth at their hall at 8:30 o'clock.

Stevie Jones and Bertie Cowling, skates boys, contested a one mile race for a silver medal last Tuesday evening, Cowling came in ahead by two seconds, and was awarded the prize.

New and larger chandeliers have been put into the room, which is a decided improvement.

Tomorrow, Saturday evening, the third and last race between Pearce, Burrell, McDonald and Murphy occurs at 8:30 o'clock.

Dr. C. R. Gresley Dentist, has enlarged his business concerns by establishing an office at the Landing, where he will be in attendance every Thursday, and he can be found at his large banquet hall, after which the dancing indulged in.

Through the efforts of Station Agent H. F. Bates and Mr. G. W. Baker, the Old Colony Corporation were induced to run a special train to convey the East Weymouth polo club and their friends, numbering one hundred or more, to Plymouth Thursday evening of last week, when occurred the league game of polo between the local teams of that town and the Weymouths. Consideration to the expectation of many of the latter were defeated by three straight goals. Plymouth may well feel proud of their home team, which is composed of gentlemanly young men who were conspicuous for their fairness during the progress of the game.

The Plymouth rink is very commodious and is fitted up in the manner.

Mr. Frank Fay was in town this week.

He has gained an extensive practice in Worcester, where he located recently.

Mr. John Cushman, of North Weymouth, has purchased the flanking property on East street, and will take possession March tenth.

The widow of the late Daniel Phillips, who was buried at the funeral, was taken to Tufts asylum for treatment.

François Tirelli, a respected citizen and for many years janitor of the town hall, is quite sick, suffering with gout on his foot.

Mr. Charles H. Pearce will have charge of the pound table at the Eastern Fair, and any donations left at the dry goods store of E. G. Bates will be carried for and turned over to Mr. Pearce.

While Mr. Joe Lincoln was strolling through Swan's last Sunday, he captured a live wild duck and squirrel. The latter escaped while being led into the trap, but the duck he had the press time.

Members of the W. C. T. U. will meet at their room next Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, as questions of importance are to come before the meeting. If stormy Friday they will meet Saturday evening.

Services next Sunday in the Immaculate Conception Church at 6 o'clock a.m.; Sunday School at 2:30 p.m.; vestments and instructions at 3:30. During Lent there will be services every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The severe storm of Monday evening caused the postponement of the Reform Club entertainment, which was to be given at the Congregational vestry last Monday evening. It will occur at the same place on the coming Monday evening, Feb. 23d.

As far as we can learn the voters of Ward two are satisfied with the present town officers, and we expect no radical change will be made at the annual meeting. The caucus, however, may shed more light on the subject and the election of the new members.

Mr. Ebenezer E. Pool, an gentle man, a retired school teacher, resides at his home Wednesday, serving as the head and sustaining injuries, the effects of which cannot be learned at the time of writing. Dr. Fay was called to attend him.

There will be another Bide reading at Mrs. Dean's, 10 South St. on Friday evening, Feb. 27, by Miss Vincent, of Boston. There was a good attendance at the last reading, which was a very clear presentation of Ridge street. It will commence with praise service. All are cordially invited.

FRIDAY, FEB. 27, 1885

The Annual Report
of the municipal boards of Weymouth have been issued, and a summary of the financial exhibit was given in last week's issue, a repetition of the figures is unnecessary, but the clearness and accuracy of the presentation of statements of receipts, expenditures, assets and liabilities of the town, is very creditable to the efficient clerk of the board of Selectmen, Henry A. Nash, Esq.—

By an error in the press, the name of the clerk to the board of Water Commissioners was omitted in the report of that department. The School Committee recommend a slight reduction in the appropriation, and speak in favor of termining the term of office of Superintendent of Schools, Gilman C. Fisher, between whom and the committee and the public there is a cordial feeling.

For Surveyors of Wood, Lumber and land, H. Smith, Lt. W. Blackwell, W. P. Keen, F. A. Lewis.

For Weighers of Coal, Hay, &c., H. D. Bent, F. E. Lewis, Matthew Collins, Wm. J. Coleman, Thomas B.
Nichols, John Russell.

For Fence Viewers—Lew W. Black-
well, Wm. T. Shaw.

The following were elected a Ward Committee and also delegates to the Town Caucus: Hon. James Humphrey,
F. T. Torrey, Samuel Thompson, John
A. Nichols, D. M. C. Inzer, and Elliott Vining for Treasurer; John A.
Ragmond for Town Clerk and F. W.
Levius for Moderator.

A copy of the report of each important to the town is that of a proposed inclosure of the shushouse, to restrict the burden of outside help, which is on the increase.

There is, without doubt, a case where a little relief offered to a family will enable its members to maintain their position outside of the house, but where much assistance

is required it could be rendered at less expense and the persons be more comfortably maintained, by taking them into the house, to which the town should look at the matter in the right light.

Attn. Editor: —On reading the report of the Town Auditors in the schedule, it appeared to me that they were liable to give a wrong impression in regard to the receipt into the treasury. They say there can be no question excepted
of the correctness of the figures; the treasurer can credit what the places, and the Auditors have no means of knowing whether that part is correct or not.

I think the Auditors must be aware that the Overseers of the Poor keep a full account of the lulls due from other towns and cities for their poor, and of individuals indebted for hospital expenses; and all such bills are made out to the Clerk of the Overseers, sent to the parties and charged to the treasurer. Are not these figures correct for those receipts? The receipts from State Aid income of the Mass. school fund, have vouchers; income of the Pratt school fund is drawn by an order from the Selectmen, and I am not aware of any receipts except from the license of dogs, and occasionally from the sale of loan by the highway surveyors, and some old school furniture, but what are voiced for.

O. WHITIE

Chairman of the Law and Order League presents reasons why a greater number of violators of the law have not been convicted, in the following sentence: "It is true that the law is not fully enforced; everybody knows the chief reason. If the business men tell the truth, there would be no difficulty; as it is, something has been done".

Entertainment.

The stethoscope exhibition at the Methodist church last Friday evening was well attended and the "Round Table" of women, who were in attendance, was thoroughly impressed, the views being accompanied with an explanatory lecture by Rev. S. J. Axell. Mr. Eugene Murphy
furnished xylophone solos, which received hearty applause, and Miss Nellie Pray gave "The Mocking Bird" and other selections of piano music in excellent style.

The Norfolk County Division of G.
A. H. offices will make their annual inspection of Post 53 on next Tuesday evening. We are informed that after the ceremonies a nice supper will be partaken of. Every member will undoubtedly be present on that evening; at least, such is the wish of the committee.

W. C. T. U.

According to an announcement made at the previous meeting in the Universalist church last Sunday evening, Miss E. C. Tobey met with the ladies of Weymouth Landing, at Union church yesterday afternoon, to organize a local Woman's Christian Temperance Union,
but owing to the difficulty of securing a president, the matter was postponed to a future meeting of the committee.
